

Bridging the Full Spectrum Gap...

... The First Step in the Transformation

Mission Analysis

- Initial Brigade Combat Team is a rapidly deployable combat brigade
- In Small Scale Contingencies (SSC):
  - Rapidly deploys to prevent, contain, stabilize or terminate crisis
  - Land force capable of determining the outcome
- In Stability and Support Operations (SASO):
  - The brigade is the guarantor combat force
  - It protects joint and coalition PK/PE forces
  - It may be the initial force deployed to separate belligerents
- In Major Theater Wars (MTW) with augmentation, fights as part of the Division:
  - Conducts supporting attacks
  - Fights as one of the brigades in the Division's main attack or main reserve with augmentation
  - Conducts economy of force, reconnaissance, screening, and limited guarding actions

Achieving Force Effectiveness

The Initial Brigade Combat Team optimizes the tenets of its operational concept and organizational design by achieving the most effective balance of force projection and battlespace dominance.

Qualities Derived From O&O

- C-130 deployable/air dropable desired, but not required
- Off/Near-off-the-shelf characteristics
- Increased sustainability
- Commonality in platform
- High reliability rates

- High tactical mobility/agility in complex and urban terrain
- Swim capable
- Direct, rapid fire gun to support infantry-centric force
- Survivable as a system-of-systems underpinned by complementary TTPs
- Own the night
